IV. Written Papers

An original unpublished paper dealing with a relevant aspect of healthcare purchasing, materials management, or support services must be submitted in order to achieve First-time Fellow status. A topic summary and outline must be submitted along with the First-time Fellow Application for review and approval by AHRMM's Fellow Review Committee. AHRMM will notify the applicant upon the Committee's approval of the topic summary and outline. Fellow Review Committee members serve as one-on-one mentors to all First-Time Fellow applicants to assist as needed.

The final paper must be submitted to AHRMM and will be reviewed by the Fellow Review Committee on the quality and the relevance of the paper to the industry. Papers will be judged as acceptable or not acceptable. If a paper is deemed not acceptable, the applicant will be informed of the reason for the Committee's decision and may be allowed to submit a revised paper.

Papers should describe a new, relevant, cost-effective, innovative, or practical approach or experience in purchasing, materials management, or support services (i.e. developing a new procedure in order to solve a problem, trying a different management approach, etc.). Components for submittals include: title page, abstract, subject matter, paper length, bibliography, and must be written in APA format (see Fellow Paper Guidelines available on AHRMM website). AHRMM reserves the right to publish and post accepted papers to its website. If published, credit will be given to the author.

Final drafts must be submitted within 12 months from the date of the Fellow Review Committee's acceptance of the applicant's paper topic summary and outline. This deadline will be communicated to candidates upon approval.

AHRMM will host Fellow papers in the AHRMM Knowledge Center for five years from the date of publication.
